

2025 Jan 15 Making Connections Using Storytelling w Marty

2026-07-31 16:54:26

00:01:29 Speaker 2

Uh, The way it felt just to base off feeling. Uh, okay. Which will pull you down closer to your seven hundred number. So I feel like there is going to be like we're trying to find somebody that now they are they're going to sell one side vacant, which I told them to do, Because That allows opens the door for an owner occupied buyer. And that's the renovated unit. The other side is not renovated, cool. So yeah,

00:01:53 Speaker 4

You can show the rest of you think just a rental.

00:01:55 Speaker 2

Just having press, just like a super easy, super generic, just drag and drop. And,

00:02:00 Speaker 4

If you end up getting and.

00:02:02 Speaker 2

Just title it twenty twenty three This address, twenty twenty three rent roll unit one unit two, make it a PDF document. So doesn't look like this. Okay. Yeah. Okay.

00:02:16 Speaker 3

Hey, I am gonna go leave. So Craig I I uh was just admiring your cool green flannel.

00:02:22 Speaker 4

Oh. Thank you. Yeah, you get the memo. No,

00:02:26 Speaker 3

I tried yesterday, but apparently nobody else got out of rhythm. Or no two days ago I tried on Monday out of rhythm. But somebody on this Zoom channel gave me a hard time about wearing flannels to work. Mindy did? Yeah, it was that's right it was Mindy. Oh okay. Anyway, all right,

00:02:48 Speaker 4

Basically if Costco sells it, it must be allowable in a. Business environment. So, there we go.

00:02:53 Speaker 5

We can talk more later.

00:02:59 Speaker 3

Okay, I am super excited about today's topic. So, this is one that I'm doubly excited that Sarah's on this one, because this is one that Sarah introduced me to several years ago, and it is not just it's not only a highly effective way of selling your services, but it's also fun and full of. And it's actually a fun topic to dive into. I've got a few video clips that I'm excited to share, things that you guys have seen before, but maybe not in a sort of a corporate training environment like this. So anyway, let's dive in. So the topic is selling by storytelling. And there was an author, A business author by the name of Donald Miller, who wrote a book called StoryBrand or Your StoryBrand.

00:03:51 Speaker 5

Building a story brand.

00:03:53 Speaker 3

Thank you, Building a Story Brand. That's the topic we're going to dive into, and we're going to try to do this justice in an hour, even though we could spend much, much more time on this. It's, it's going to an hour sounds like a long time to talk about this, but it's actually going to move very quickly, and we may not even need the whole time. We'll see. So first I want to do. The first thing I want to do is explore the idea of story branding. So, there's a specific type of story. We're going to tell with a specific type of character. And there are many formats for stories, of course. And in I think seventh grade, I learned that in creative writing that what you need for a good story is a conflict, right? You need a protagonist and an antagonist. That creates the conflict.

00:04:48 Speaker 3

That's going to be the same thing here. This is not going to be an English or creative writing class. We're just going to pull a few tidbits from that. And there are many genres of stories, but the particular framework that Mr. Miller goes into is called the hero's journey. Have you guys heard of that story format before, the hero's journey? You guys are familiar with these, but maybe not under that name, okay? Paula, you're nodding your head so.

00:05:18 Speaker 6

You can kind of imagine a lot of things.

00:05:20 Speaker 3

Okay, Sarah, what's one of your favorite hero's journey stories? Star Wars. Star Wars. Okay, who's the hero? It's actually written from the point of view of R 2- D 2. Did you guys know that? That's, how that's how uh yeah George wrote it from the point of view of R 2- D 2. But the hero is not the droid. The hero is Luke Skywalker. Okay, okay. At least on the surface, right? But you can but you can track. I thought she was going to say "maverick." Maverick? No, no, that's a different one so So with Luke Skywalker, you can track him through the desire that he had, the obstacle that he had overcoming the obstacle and.

00:06:09 Speaker 3

Growing into the hero and then learning what the fantastic result is, We even learn what the result would be if he did not embark on this hero's journey. And one key factor that a lot of people overlook is the mystical guide. Okay, Luke has a mystical guide. In fact, he's got more than one. Who are Luke Skywalker's mystical guides? Yoda, I am. Yoda? That's right. Who else? Obi-Wan Kenobi. Obi-Wan Kenobi, right? Okay. What what are some other examples other than Star Wars?

00:06:40 Speaker 6

The Hobbit, The Lord of the Rings, my favorite.

00:06:43 Speaker 3

Absolutely, Lord of the Rings. Okay and who's the who's the hero in that one? Frodo. Frodo Baggins is the hero and who's the mystical guide?

00:06:58 Speaker 6

Gandalf! There we go.

00:06:59 Speaker 3

Gandalf is is the mystical guide. Okay what does Frodo desire? Save his people. To save the people, his people, his home. He also desires adventure, which he absolutely gets. But he's got a roadblock. What's his roadblock? He's never been outside of uh the Shire, right? Then he meets the mystical guide. The mystical guide has an impact on him et cetera, right? Uh, he even learns what will happen if he doesn't step up and take the journey. Okay what give me one or two more examples of hero's journey type stories?

00:07:34 Speaker 6

About all the Disney movies.

00:07:36 Speaker 3

Many of the Disney movies, absolutely. They they take the hero's journey example.

00:07:41 Speaker 5

Harry Potter.

00:07:43 Speaker 3

Okay, Harry Potter, like it or hate it, Harry Potter absolutely is the hero's journey story.

00:07:49 Speaker 4

You could look at some figures in life like Abraham Lincoln. I mean there's an incredible amount of adversity he went through.

00:07:57 Speaker 3

Can you guys hear Craig? Yeah yeah a little bit.

00:08:01 Speaker 4

Yeah, so Abraham Lincoln is someone that would qualify in my mind. Even George Washington, Where they came into life with a lot of rough edges and had to learn a lot to then get to where they were. And even where they were at still possessing weaknesses and whatnot, but accomplishing something significant.

00:08:18 Speaker 3

Absolutely. And if if you can't ideal a mystical guide for them in human form, um they both of them in their own separate ways actually took guidance from, The Bible or their religious upbringing, okay, which can be their mystical guide, right? Um, okay. So I am going to rattle off a few more quick examples. And here I'll do a whoops what the heck.

00:08:46 Speaker 6

Cortez that burned the ships.

00:08:49 Speaker 3

Cortez? Yes, I am familiar with that part of Cortez's story. I think it was Cortez, but I don't know the enough of the rest,

00:08:56 Speaker 7

But that was also based on priorum.

00:09:00 Speaker 7

Exp erience burning the ships, by the time Cortez came around, have become synonymous with. No, there's no way back,

00:09:11 Speaker 6

Right? Okay,

00:09:14 Speaker 3

Here, I'm going to try to make this sorry.

00:09:17 Speaker 5

Alsoum Wizard of Oz. Um yep, let's see here.

00:09:30 Speaker 5

Kung Fu Panda, Kung Fu Panda. I just Googled it. Looking all these.

00:09:35 Speaker 3

Yeah, I actually have a little list, but for some reason my screen share messed up. Oh, there we go. Okay. Okay, can you guys see my screen scrolling here really fast?

Okay, so I'm so identifying the heroes. We got Luke Skywalker, we got Dorothy from The Wizard of Oz. Okay Paula mentioned Frodo got Simba What's Simba from? Lion King, who's the mythical guide? His father. His father? I didn't think of that, but yeah, that makes sense. Mufasa is Rafiki. Rafiki is the other one. Yep. Okay, and Harry Potter we talked about his mythical guide. Who's Harry Potter's mythical guide? Dumbledore. Dumbledore. Okay, Walter Mitty? What? Walter Mitty The Secret Life of Walter Mitty.

00:10:28 Speaker 3

Okay, have you guys seen that one? You got to see that one. It's a fun movie. Okay, and actually, that's his mythical guide is his daydreams, his delusions. Absolutely.

00:10:39 Speaker 7

He's like the ultimate ADHD delusional personality. Yes,

00:10:43 Speaker 3

But that's what ultimately brings him to his success. Okay okay Mulan. And here we go with the Disney right Mr Incredible.

00:10:51 Speaker 7

So yeah, are we talking? Mulan Disney or the real Mulan?

00:10:55 Speaker 3

I don't. Unfortunately, all I know is the Mulan Disney. Mulan's got a mythical guide too. It's the stupid little dragon, right?

00:11:02 Speaker 7

The real Mulan's much cooler.

00:11:03 Speaker 3

Yeah, I bet it is. That doesn't surprise me at all.

00:11:05 Speaker 7

Mushu by the way is the dragon.

00:11:07 Speaker 3

Mushu, thank you. Okay, Moana Karate Kid Who was the Karate Kid's Mr Mr Miyagi That was his mythical guide So be defense. Okay, We've we've talked about some more so.

00:11:19 Speaker 7

Don't be punchy back guy.

00:11:20 Speaker 3

When you're telling this story. And we'll get into the guts of the story in a minute. This is a pro tip, if you confuse, you lose. So keep the story simple. Keep the setting and the story and the terms in terms that they can understand from their point of view. Remember, they're the hero of this story. Your client or your potential client is the hero of this story. You are The Mythical Guide, okay?

00:11:47 Speaker 5

Oh, I want to stress that because a lot of people get that mixed up. You're not the hero of this story. That's right. You're using this, um, this to, you know, in your business. It's the client. Make them the hero.

00:12:03 Speaker 3

Absolutely right. And I cannot figure out how to get the right stuff on the screen here. Sorry. There we go. That's okay Okay So that is the key is, You are just the mythical guide. They are the hero of the story. Okay, if you, the simpler you keep it, the faster they're going to catch on. If, you think of some Sarah and I have watched some advertisements recently and I know you guys have too where it's like I don't know what that was about. I don't have any idea what they were selling.

00:12:41 Speaker 7

My wife hates the Liberty Mutual commercials with with the emus by the time you're done. Well, there's 60 seconds of my life I'll never get back.

00:12:51 Speaker 3

Yeah. Okay, there's something about a wax figure melting in the sun or a parade balloon. I don't understand what's going on here. Yeah. So keep the story simple. Um, okay, And there's there's a seven step and really it's an eight step uh process to this. Okay? Step zero is the aspirational identity. Okay you're going to identify who they are before your help, And who they are after your help. So, I'll give you an example. So, somebody wants a beautiful lawn. You're a landscaping company and somebody comes to you because and they're shopping for landscaping companies because they want their lawn to be better. Okay? So, who are they before your help and who are they after your help?

00:13:43 Speaker 3

Yeah, They're a homeowner but it's not about the yard it's, It's about them, right? So tell me who from their perspective.

00:13:52 Speaker 6

We are homeowners with a yard that needs help.

00:13:56 Speaker 3

Yeah, we're homeowners with a yard that needs help. We can't keep up with our yard. We have a crappy yard. We are the bane of our neighbors perhaps or don't know where to start.

00:14:04 Speaker 7

Don't know where to start, You know, I'm overwhelmed I have an idea what I want, but I don't know where to start Okay.

00:14:08 Speaker 3

And who are they after they hire the landscaper, if it's a good landscaper,

00:14:12 Speaker 6

Pride of the neighborhood The.

00:14:13 Speaker 3

Pride of the neighborhood The envy of their neighbors. Uh, you know, They, they uh have a beautiful yard, and they don't have to lift a finger, right? Okay. So you're identifying the delta or rather the the you know who they are now versus who they could be after your help. Okay. Now we have a character who wants something. Who's the character? The homeowner or in our case, the um it would be the prospective client, The non-homeowner maybe right? Yeah, The buyer or seller. Okay.

00:14:44 Speaker 3

And uh yeah, we just we just gave that example of the landscaping company. We could also talk about a tax accountant, you know. What does somebody looking for tax services want?

00:14:58 Speaker 3

They Want the knowledge. They they want to be told what the right decision to make is. They want to pay as.

00:15:03 Speaker 7

Few taxes as possible.

00:15:04 Speaker 3

That's right, they want to minimize their taxes. They want maybe some extra money in their bank account when this whole thing is done. They want to not be worried about the I R S, right?

00:15:14 Speaker 3

Okay, now the our character has a problem. Okay, with the landscaping company and the tax help seeker, that's easy to understand. What about in our situation as real estate agents?

00:15:27 Speaker 7

They either have a home to sell and don't know where to start, or they're trying to buy a home and don't know where to start.

00:15:31 Speaker 3

Yeah, maybe they they don't know where to start. What other problems do they have?

00:15:36 Speaker 7

They don't know the process.

00:15:38 Speaker 3

They don't know the process. Yep those are both those are both great examples what else.

00:15:44 Speaker 7

They don't know the value of their home or the property that they own.

00:15:47 Speaker 3

Okay, so there's a lot of details, important impactful details that they don't know how to navigate. Okay, why are they why are they buying or selling in the first place?

00:16:01 Speaker 7

They're not happy where they are. So what is their motivation?

00:16:04 Speaker 3

Yeah right, they're not happy where they are. Maybe they have a crazy neighbor, maybe the place is too small, maybe it's too big. Right okay what else?

00:16:15 Speaker 3

Maybe they're maybe they're not in the market. They're renting, like Paula said before. Maybe they're not a homeowner yet at all. Okay, We've.

00:16:22 Speaker 7

Got a transfer for work and I only sold my son and I've got to move on a very short time schedule.

00:16:26 Speaker 3

That's right. Maybe they just have to, and their problem is that, oh, you know, they got a deadline coming up, right? That's their problem okay? And, here's the tip. So talk about your customer's problem when you stop talking about their problem, they stop listening Does that make sense? It's not, What you want to solve for you, it's what you want to solve for them. Okay, And we could we could talk about the with the landscaping company, if if you if the landscaping company starts talking about how they're going to their treatment is better for the environment. But that thought never entered your mind, You know, that's not a priority for you. Then you're not listening to them. Does that make sense? So you talk about their problem. Same with the tax accountant. Same idea.

00:17:15 Speaker 3

Okay, how does it make them feel when you talk about their problem?

00:17:20 Speaker 6

Important, like you want to help them.

00:17:22 Speaker 3

Yeah, like you're on their side. How does their how does them talking about their problem make them feel also? It depends on what the problem is, right? They could be frustrated. They could be cramped. They could feel that there's some sort of injustice because their neighbor keeps perpetrating these bad things on them. Whatever it is, right? Or I deserve better than this. You know, honestly that's that's a sentiment that's that is present as well. Okay. Is it deeper than just those superficial feelings? You have to ask questions to find out. Right. Okay. This is like the landscaper talking about environmental benefits when that's not a concern of yours, That's not That's not a way to sell to you. You got to find out what they're really feeling and you know how deep that goes.

00:18:10 Speaker 7

Lindy was watching Greece last night, and they've got the line," Tell me more, tell me more, tell me more." Yeah.

00:18:16 Speaker 3

Yeah. That should echo in your head. Although.

00:18:18 Speaker 7

Don't go to the next slide.

00:18:19 Speaker 3

Yeah. Don't worry about watching Greece.

00:18:24 Speaker 7

Oh boy.

00:18:25 Speaker 3

Yeah So.

00:18:28 Speaker 3

So Keep talking about their problems Okay. So our character wants something They have a problem And, then they meet a guide The hero! No, no, no. They are the heroes. That's right. Sorry, I got confused already. The mystical guide. That's right. That's right. They need their Yoda, they need their Mr Miyagi, okay? You are the mystical guide.

00:18:54 Speaker 6

More fun anyway Right?

00:18:56 Speaker 3

Absolutely And.

00:18:57 Speaker 7

I'll wash our pits in the pool of solemn tears,

00:19:00 Speaker 3

That's right I don't know that line Which one? Kung Fu Panda Kung Fu Panda Yeah,

I'm not a kung fu panda expert I guess but, I've seen one or two of them, whatever. Sue me. Okay, they meet the mythical guide. The mythical guide. Okay, now the hero wants something they can't have. We just said that. So, we're going to watch a short clip. See if I can do this, right. Oh, I know what the problem is. These are all in different tabs. There we go.

00:19:42 Speaker 3

Can you guys still see my screen? I can. Okay, I'm going to shift to screen sharing so you can get the audio, which means our audio will be muted. Let's see if I can do this right.

00:20:31 Speaker 8

You know, I think that R 2 unit we bought might have been stolen.

00:20:34 Speaker 9

What makes you think that? Well, I stumbled across a recording while I was cleaning him. He says he belongs to someone called Obi- Wan Kenobi.

00:20:43 Speaker 10

Thought he might have meant Old Ben. Do you know what he's talking about?

00:20:47 Speaker 9

Hmm. What if he's related to Ben? That wizard is just a crazy old man. Tomorrow, I want you to take that R 2 unit to Anchorhead and have its memory erased. That'll be the end of it. It belongs to us now! But what if this Obi-Wan comes looking for me? He won't. I don't think he exists anymore. He died about the same time as your father. He knew my father? I told you to forget it. Your only concern is to prepare those new droids for tomorrow. In the morning, I want them up there on the south ridge working on those condensers. Yes, sir. I think those new droids are going to work out fine. In fact, I uh.

00:21:29 Speaker 9

Also thinking about our agreement, about me staying on another season. And if these new droids do work out, I want to transmit my application to the academy this year. You mean the next semester before the harvest? Sure, there's more than enough droids. Harvest is when I need you the most. It's only one season more. This year, we'll make enough on the harvest that I'll be able to hire some more hands. And then you can go to the academy next year. You must understand, I need you here Luke. But it's a whole 'nother year! Look, it's only one more season. Yeah, that's what she said when Biggs and Tash left.

00:22:02 Speaker 6

Where are you going?

00:22:03 Speaker 9

Looks like I'm going nowhere. I have to go finish cleaning those droides. Oh, and he can't stay here forever. Most of his friends have gone. It means so much to him. I'll make it up to him next time, I promise. Luke's just not a farmer Owen. He has too much of his father in him. That's what I'm afraid of.

00:23:12 Speaker 3

I love that music. It is good music. Okay, did that come through okay? Yeah, okay, cool. So, how is Luke like our clients first of all? What did Luke want?

00:23:29 Speaker 7

He wants something more. He wants out.

00:23:32 Speaker 3

Yeah, he wants out. He wants something more, right? Okay, what was his roadblock?

00:23:40 Speaker 7

His uncle wasn't ready for him going away, whatever.

00:23:43 Speaker 3

Yeah, that was part of it, right? Okay, wise guy. That was part of it. It was basically he didn't know anything else. He was stuck there as kind of like Frodo. He was like stuck in the Shire, right? Only Luke's desire to leave was a little more expressed than Frodo's was. The same idea and it's basically the same as our clients. They feel stuck somewhere, they need to get out or get in or get over whatever, okay? So, meanwhile, back at the ranch. Go back to the share mode. Okay. So you got to show them that you understand and that you care, okay? And we've talked at length about that. I don't want to go into that today. I want to cover these steps, these guts, okay? And.

00:24:37 Speaker 3

Here's something we haven't talked much about. Show them that without a shadow of a doubt, you know how to help them. Okay, you can express confidence. So who are the guides in these? Actually, we already kind of talked about that first, didn't we? The guides in these different hero's journey examples. We already went over that. So we're not going to do that again.

00:24:57 Speaker 7

I think Marty one kind of got overlooked, and at the end of the scene is where he was saying, look, he's not like you. Right. My client is not like me, I may see a solution to something that I really want to push on my client, but they're not me. They may be looking for an entirely different solution, which Luke was, but his uncle could only see it one way.

00:25:18 Speaker 3

Good call. His uncle was not expressing it in a way that Luke could identify with.

00:25:22 Speaker 7

And he tries to express it, but she's kind of caught in the same thing.

00:25:26 Speaker 3

Yeah. Okay, now you're the guide. You come along and you give them a plan, Okay, Now you should give them the plan in simple terms and keep it in very few simple steps. You're not going to say there's a 13 2 point plan that I'm going to come talk to you about for three hours. Okay, You should make an appointment with them and say, look, I want to understand your goals better and present a plan to you. Absolutely you should do that. And honestly the consultation, A good buyer's consultation will take an hour and a half to two hours or even more.

00:26:03 Speaker 3

And a seller's consultation might take a similar amount of time, But almost all of that time should be spent understanding what their roadblock is and what their desire is. Not you explaining stuff. Some of it should be, but not most. Okay? Three maybe four biggest points of what your plan is. Okay? And in this case, what was the plan presented to Luke?

00:26:31 Speaker 7

Just one more. Season, get the droids going. Well,

00:26:35 Speaker 3

Yeah, that was Uncle Owen's plan that Luke rejected. Okay, but what what was who was Luke's first mystical guide? Obi Wan Kenobi. And what what was the plan that he presented to Luke? I've got it right here on the screen.

00:26:50 Speaker 7

And in the most dangerous weapon in the universe and watch him stare down the barrel of without turning it on.

00:26:54 Speaker 6

Turn away to the force, come with me to Alderaan.

00:27:01 Speaker 3

Right, That was the plan that the simple plan that Obi- Wan presented to Luke. Luke bought that plan, okay, except for his roadblock. I am stuck here. That was his roadblock until O bi- W an did what called him into action or called him to action. You guys have heard that a call to action a CTA). Okay. Well, I have a clip. Okay, let's see here. Let me get back to that. Okay. Okay, so this so Jenna, I know you just joined us. This legit training We're we're going to watch a clip Uh if I can do this, right? Okay?

00:27:57 Speaker 3

Oh, I got to do the screen share correctly.

00:28:17 Speaker 8

What has lasted 5, 000 years?

00:28:25 Speaker 4

No, my father didn't fight in the wars. He was a navigator on a spice freighter.

00:28:28 Speaker 11

That's what your uncle told you. He didn't hold with your father's ideals, thought he should have stayed here and not gotten involved. You fought in the Clone Wars?

Yes, I was once a Jedi knight.

00:28:40 Speaker 5

In our most desperate hour. Help me Obi- Wan Kenobi. You're my only hope.

00:28:59 Speaker 11

You must learn the ways of the Force. If you're to come with me to Alderaan.

00:29:04 Speaker 5

Alderaan? I'm not going to Alderaan. I've got to get home. It's late, I'm in for it as it is.

00:29:09 Speaker 11

I need your help, Luke. She needs your help. I'm getting too old for this sort of thing. I.

00:29:19 Speaker 5

Can't get involved! I've got work to do! It's not that I like the Empire, I hate it! But there's nothing i can do about it right now!

00:29:29 Speaker 5

It's such a long way from here.

00:29:38 Speaker 3

Okay, You get the idea. So that was the call to action. What was the what was the call to action? You need to help. Yeah,

00:29:49 Speaker 7

I'm getting too old for this nonsense.

00:29:51 Speaker 3

I'm getting too old for this, he but he said it directly:" You must learn the ways of the Force," right?

00:29:59 Speaker 7

Okay. If she was go to Alderaan with me and save the princess. That's right. He pretty much told him all three things we need to do.

00:30:04 Speaker 3

He did. Luke still objected because he had this roadblock, okay? But then Obi- Wan helps him overcome that. Now, Here is the thing about call to action:, if you never tell your clients what to do, they generally won't do it, okay? Heather, you've got a lot of experience with this. Yeah right? Okay, and here's another statistic that I found this morning actually. Emails with a call to action result in 1600% better sales or higher sales figures. You can send an email that says," Here I'm an expert, whatever I can make your wildest dreams come true." But if you don't give them a call to action like what? What kind of call to action could you do in an email campaign?

00:30:50 Speaker 7

Call me. Let's find us talk.

00:30:53 Speaker 3

Call me let's talk or, Send me a message if you'd like a CMA, right? Heather, has that worked for you at all? Yeah. What has your call to action been? Like what do you tell your clients to do, your potential clients?

00:31:11 Speaker 12

I just try to tell them next step. Tell them the next step so it's not like overwhelming.

00:31:16 Speaker 3

Right. Just one thing at a time, right? Hey, I know on your videos you give a simple call to action. It's like call me if I can do this for you. You know, call me. You tell them what to do, what to do next. Okay. All right. And oh, There's a many examples. If you study companies that take over other businesses to turn them around, Usually, the single biggest thing they do. That makes the most difference is the call to action. Instead of a website that just says all the cool stuff they do, I call that a brochure website. They have buttons everywhere that says book an appointment, book an appointment, book an appointment. Okay? That's the call to action.

00:31:56 Speaker 3

All right, you call them to action that ends in success. Okay, and we'll get to the clips in a second, but you paint the picture of success. If they can see it in their minds, they are much more likely to buy from you or to buy your services. Okay, as a listing agent or buyer's agent. But you got to paint the picture. This is what your life will look like when you hire me to take care of your real estate stuff. What like what kind of things could we say.

00:32:32 Speaker 6

Um, I am just thinking like my brother in law, helped them get a place down in St George. And he, he kind of got forced into early retirement, and he is having the time of his life. He's going golfing. He actually works for the golf course, just a couple days a week to make a little extra money because it's fun. They're you know going on trips they're, So, I don't know. I could use him as an example and show this is what I think.

00:32:59 Speaker 3

That's that is a great idea. And if you were his agent in St George, could you have predicted at least some of that for him? Oh yeah. Yeah, okay. So you can predict the future after their solutions are are put in place, right? Somebody's trying to eliminate their commutes or get away from the crazy neighbor or. Have less of a house to take care of orum or have more of a house because of their growing family needs, or whatever it is right?

00:33:36 Speaker 3

Yes, And it can start with the words. Imagine. Okay. So Darren, what? How would you give me a phrase that you would use with one of your potential clients? Just imagine and fill in the blank. Just imagine having family over.

00:33:55 Speaker 3

Beautiful. In that great big kitchen. Yes. And entertaining the way you like to. Okay, perfect example. Okay, Heather, give me a just imagine sentence. We're painting the picture of the successful end of the story, okay? For your client. So if you hire me, you'll have this success. Now you got to paint the picture what that success looks like. So how would you how would you complete that sentence? Just imagine.

00:34:22 Speaker 12

The new house that they want to get into. Just.

00:34:24 Speaker 3

Just, imagine the new, okay, but give give me, how would you talk to them about It?

00:35:06 Speaker 3

This is how AI optimizes my schedule. This meeting got canceled. Hooray, we didn't really.

00:36:15 Speaker 3

Okay, so that's Luke winning, right? That's that's I thought I stopped it. There we go. So that was Luke winning and crossed the threshold into success. What was his success? It was not dying, not dying, right? Yeah. Also, it was the redemption of his father and re and reconnecting with his father. There were all kinds of things reconnecting with his.

00:36:42 Speaker 7

Father over his father and his daddy issues.

00:36:44 Speaker 3

Yeah, I got a daddy issues. Okay, he's saved the empire, right? Okay, became a Jedi.

You know all those things. And here is what success looked like for him. Gonna do this again. Can do this right?

00:39:49 Speaker 7

New series, They CGI in.

00:39:51 Speaker 3

Yeah, they put the other guy in. But so notice how George Lucas started with the the big, the spectacular, the grandiose, which helped to paint that picture. But what did he end with what was what was the ending image of Luke's success?

00:40:08 Speaker 6

His father standing with O bi- W,

00:40:10 Speaker 3

An That's right The Redemption of his father and their and his reconnection with his father, okay, and he saved the princess. And he saved the princess. Yes, but the most emotional, poignant, deepest seated reasons were not the spectacular and grandiose, although they were of course the most impactful or arguably the most impactful. It was not the hundreds of thousands of dollars someone will save or earn. It was the deeply seated emotional connections that that he leaned on for that. Okay. All right, let's wrap up here.

00:40:45 Speaker 3

Uh okay. Go back to here we go. Okay, So you paint the picture of success, if they can see it in their minds, they're more likely to buy from you and use six or seven points. Okay, we already we already went through that stuff okay? And you also help them avoid failure. Oh yeah, I have one more uh actually I got two more little quotes, they're little or little clips. So.

00:41:16 Speaker 3

Okay, you know what I want you to succeed. Here's all the points of success. Here's here's what success looks like, especially so that you can avoid, what How would you paint the picture of, not going on the journey.

00:41:29 Speaker 6

You know we're gonna have a reward at the end.

00:41:31 Speaker 3

Right I I would hate for you to miss out on right fear of missing out FOMO right? Um okay, or I would hate for you to still be making that commute a year from now? Or I'd hate for you to uh. To do something that you'll regret when you get into it with your neighbor or I'd hate for you guys to still be cramped in that house a year from now or yeah, or I'd hate for you to be slaving away, taking care of this huge house for the next two years. Whatever it is.

00:42:05 Speaker 3

Right, Hate to have you still be paying rent a year from now when you could have been enjoyingum you know, equity growth in the market, this whole time, whatever it is right, okay.

00:42:18 Speaker 3

We're going to go once again. Okay.

00:42:38 Speaker 13

You Must face Darth Vader again.

00:42:41 Speaker 10

I can't kill my own father.

00:42:47 Speaker 13

Then the emperor has already won. You were our only hope.

00:43:00 Speaker 3

Okay, short, but you get the idea. Just tell a story. And plus that was fun. Okay, now you put it all together. Oh by the way, So I almost missed the pro tip: You should talk about what would happen if they don't go on the journey like we just talked about, but don't dwell on it. Spend way more time talking about what success looks like than what failure looks like. Okay, that's way, way more important. Uh, let's see. And then put it together in a what what Miller calls a brand script. It's the story is what it is. Okay, put the story together. You were Paula you were talking about you could tell other people about, did you say it was your father in law's brother? Oh excuse me, your brother in law and sister their story moving to St George, and now he can.

00:43:45 Speaker 3

You know, spend all this time at the golf course or whatever it is, right? Okay, so you put all of this together, all of those elements and tell the story. How do you tell the story? Yeah, it's whatever your your format is. Darren is good at telling the story via emails. Okay, Darren's got awesome email campaigns. Heather, you're good at telling the story on social media for example. Paula, You're exceptionally good at telling the story in a group setting and with your clients, one on one. I've seen you do that or at least seen the results. Okay, each of you each of us has a different way of telling the story, but tell the story to your potential clients. Tell the story to the public. Tell stories to you, the clients you're working with. Keep telling them the story.

00:44:34 Speaker 5

Um, a good way to start a story if you're going to um, Make a post on social media is just say, "I want to tell you a story." People love hearing stories. Right now, I've been looking through a Facebook group that I am in Connect Utah, which I think some of you are into. And it's for mostly business owners. And whenever scanning through here and I am like, whenever somebody gets on here and starts telling a story about something that happened, those are the posts that get the most comments.

00:45:08 Speaker 5

People want to hear stories. So you could just start, I want to tell you a story. And it's that's, you know, this big problem and here is how it was solved. You know, it's engaging.

00:45:21 Speaker 3

That's fantastic. Yeah, it's super true. In fact there was a guy on Instagram or Facebook. I can't remember which or maybe it was YouTube whatever. It was years ago, He would start every post the same way with two words Do. You remember this Sarah? Story time, Story time. He was huge. He was huge. That's all he would do, story time, and it was hardly a story, but he used those two words and got all kinds of attention. Yeah. Okay, that's a great tip. Uh okay, let's see here. Oh okay. So this this how we'll wrap this up. Guys see, I didn't go a full hour And. This will this will be a nice fun way to wrap this up, I hate that it shows the preview cause, then it gives.

00:46:07 Speaker 3

Gives it away. Oh, I wasn't sharing screens. Okay. Hang on, hang on. Don't say it, don't say it. Customize and save with Liberty Mutual! Customize.

00:46:28 Speaker 8

And save!

00:46:38 Speaker 8

Hold it, hold it. What is this? Are you trying to trick me? Is this a kissing book?

00:46:46 Speaker 10

Wait, just wait.

00:46:48 Speaker 8

When does it get good?

00:46:49 Speaker 10

Keep your shirt on, let me read. And as they reach for each other. What? What? Now it's kissing again. You don't want to hear that.

00:47:04 Speaker 8

I don't mind so much. Okay.

00:47:10 Speaker 10

Since the invention of the kiss, there have been five kisses that were rated the most passionate, the most pure. This one left them all behind.

00:47:31 Speaker 3

I Had to end with that one. It's like the best story ever with a hero's journey, I might add. Okay. Hopefully that was useful. So, um, if you want to uh learn more about story branding, grab the book Building a StoryBrand by Donald Miller. Um, I believe it's on Audible. I'm pretty sure. If not, I can uh let me know and I'll get you a copy. But um hopefully that was helpful. You can, by the way, this works with question based selling and all the other techniques we've already talked about. Okay. So.

00:48:10 Speaker 3

Sarah, do you know if this one is on Audible?

00:48:15 Speaker 5

The StoryBrand book? Yeah. Oh yeah. There's a second one too.

00:48:21 Speaker 3

I did not know that.

00:48:22 Speaker 5

Yeah. Okay,

00:48:23 Speaker 7

It must be on Audible if Marty knows it, because assuming he read it so big assumption.

00:48:28 Speaker 3

Okay, Hopefully that was helpful, like I said. And uh, we'll see you next time. Let's go do real estate.
